UIAA

International Council for Competition Climbing

Qualifications criteria for the International World Games Duisburg 2005

Discipline: Difficulty
Number of participants 12 male and 12 female
Qualification date: 1 of January 2005

Criteria

1) World Champion 2005*
2) Asian Champion 2004
3) European Champion 2004
4) North American Champion 2004
5) South American Champion 2004
6) Oceania Continental Champion 2004
7) German Champion 2004
8) The winner of the 2004 Difficulty World Cup ***
9) The Junior Difficulty World Youth Champion 2004
10) The best ranked eligible athlete of the World Cup 2004*
11) Appointed by the ICC Board, together with the ICC Event Commission Director, considering the World Cup and World Championship of the 4 preceding years rankings so that the most representative Climbing competitors will take part in the IWGA, if not yet included in 1) to 10).
12) Same as 11)

Discipline: Speed
Number of participants 8 male and 8 female
Qualification date: 1 of January 2005

Criteria

1) World Champion 2005*
2) Asian Champion 2004
3) European Champion 2004
4) North American Champion 2004
5) South American Champion 2004
6) Oceania Champion 2004
7) German Champion 2004
8) The 1st ranked athlete in the 2004 World Ranking

Note:

* If the Continental Champion 2004 becomes also the World Champion 2005 than the second place of the World Championship 2005 will qualify.

 If the German Champion 2004 is the European Champion 2004 then the first German in the 2004 World Cup ranking will qualify

 If winner of the World Cup 2004 is the Continental Champion 2004 or the German Champion then the second ranked athlete in the 2004 World Cup will qualify

* Places 9 to 12 in difficulty will be filled by the ICC Board and the of ICC event commission Director, considering the 2004 World Cup ranking and the number of countries involved

Where the above criteria cannot apply, the ICC Board will select candidate(s)

INTERNATIONAL WORLD GAMES ASSOCIATION

World Games 2005 Duisburg

GAISF

ARISF